What the Chicago Democrat Means.

We have no disposition to under-estimate the reception given to Judge Douglas. It was unquestionable as to the number of persons who witnessed it, as well as in the cordiality and enthusiasm, to permit a doubt of this. But, as we have said before, the Democrat is making a blunder in the estimate it puts upon the manner of conducting the campaign. When the managers of the party, at New York, or Chicago or Springfield, or anywhere else, undertake to make a show of numbers, and to get up a grand demonstration with which to overawe their opponents, they always make a mistake. They have been at it for half a dozen years, and have been beaten for half a dozen times. Their last attempt was a failure, and they have been forced to the humiliating confession that the Democratic party is not what it used to be. Its old prestige is gone. It has been weighed in the balance, and found wanting. It has been tried, and condemned. It has been found guilty of the grossest political crimes, and the people have pronounced sentence upon it. It is a party without principle, without character, without a single claim upon the confidence of the people. It has been weighed down with the load of its own corruption, and crushed out of existence. It is a party that has been tried and found wanting, and the people have pronounced sentence upon it. It is a party that has been weighed down with the load of its own corruption, and crushed out of existence. It is a party that has been tried and found wanting, and the people have pronounced sentence upon it. It is a party that has been weighed down with the load of its own corruption, and crushed out of existence.

COMMERCIAL.

Commercial and Money Matters.

PRIDAY EVENING, July 8, 1864.

MONEY, EXCHANGE, &C.—The money market is very quiet. Exchange remains steady at 1 per cent premium.

Bankers and others discounting freely on produce at 1@ per cent.

COMMERCIAL.—The Wheat market to-day was very much depressed. No. 2 Spring opened at 91c in store: but declined on 'Change to 90c, and is the afternoon to 88½c in store—closing dull and heavy. No. 1 Spring and Rejected were in good demand at 97 and 91@93c in store. No other grain or flour to-day. Although there are some vague suspicions of fly and rust, yet the appearances are very flattering indeed for a heavy yield. The weather is now all that can be desired, and Corn is growing with a rapidity that farmers seem satisfied the crop will be an average one and will be matured in good season.

You would be delighted to see our country at present. Nothing but grain and thousands of fat cattle, in every direction, to be seen. What a luxuriance of vegetable and animal growth! Whatever may be the privations caused by dull trade and heavy floods in many districts of the Union, there need be little fear of want in our quarter, for abundance stares you in the face in every direction.

Yours, truly,

A. HALDANE.

Chicago Daily Live Stock Market.

FRIDAY EVENING, July 8.

The receipts at Sherman's yards to-day were—2 cars Cattle by the C, B & Q R R, and 2 cars Hogs by the Ill C. No sales here.

Home Marketing.

MEATS—We have no change to note from last week. Our quotations are made up at the leading stalls of the South Side, and we are aware we are paying very large figures obtained elsewhere in other portions of the city. We quote Beef, prime cuts, 10c; round cuts, 9@10c; 2nd cuts, 8@9c; Steaks, 9c; Lamb, 6@12½c per quarter, Mutton, 10@12½c per lb. Dried Beef, 10@11½c per lb. Shoulders, 8@10c per lb. Salt Pork, 10c per lb. Cured Beef, 5@7c per lb. Sausages, 12½@15c per lb. Beef Tongues, 10c per lb.

PROVISIONS—Butter, 12@14. Cheese, 9@10c. Eggs, 10@12c per dozen.

GAME AND POULTRY—Chickens, 14@25c. Turkeys 10@12c per lb. Pigeons, 75c per doz.

FISH—Whitefish, fresh, 6c per lb. Lake Trout, do., 5c. Pickerel, do., 5c. Red Snapper, do., 5c. Red Bass, do., 6c.

VEGETABLES—New Potatoes are coming in, though not at a price which commend them to very general use. Old potatoes are plenty and cheap. We have heard of sales within this week at 12½c per bu. This advantage is of course limited to those who have purchasers in small quantities. Garden sauce is more plenty, but sales still rule high.

New Potatoes per bu, $1.40; old do., 35c. Onions per bu, $1 50; per bbl, $3 50. Cabbages, $1 per doz. New Beets, 6@8c; do Turnips, do, 30c; do Carrots do, 50; Radishes do, 20c; New Onions do, 20c; Cucumbers, 6@8c per doz. Tomatoes, 6@8c per lb. Pie Plant, 3 bunch, 6@8c; Lettuce do, 15c; Green Corn, 6c @ 9 ears.

FRUITS—Summer Berries are selling plenty, but prices are well sustained. Strawberry, as now out of season, command from 8@10c per quart to the consumer, who, if he had memories of other years favored, should hail the change in rate at this price of rather a high flavor. Whortleberries are coming in, and are as quoted. We notice a few arrivals of Apples and Pears, but not of a quality and worth to deserve a quotation. Gooseberries, 6@8c per quart; Currants, 10c do. Strawberries, 25c do; Raspberries, 15c do; Black berries, 20c do; Cherries, 25c do; Peaches, 50c per doz; Apples, new, $1.50 per bbl; old do, $3; Pears, $6 ? bu; Pine Apples, 37½c; Bananas, 50@60c ? doz; Cocoa Nuts, 10@15c a piece.

DRIED FRUITS—Apples, 10c ? lb; Peaches, pared, 20c ? lb; unpaired, 12c do.

Kentucky	1	Pennsylvania

REMARKS ON BEEF CATTLE.

The receipts for this market were rather better, though still below the average of last year. We noticed a fair average of all sizes and qualities, and the market was again poor—a decline of ½c per lb on the sales of last week, and ½c on some sales. Most of the stock was from Illinois. New York is not represented at all. Mr. Allerton's drove, from the Jersey Meadows, N. J., and at that place 400 head were sold to butchers.

It is said that a good number of cattle are at pasture all along the Hudson River, ready for shipment, to be brought to market when prices will justify. Up to one o'clock the drovers were hopeful that the market would improve, but none could be quoted.

Sales of Beeves, Cows, Veals, Sheep and Swine, at Browning's this morning, prices were ½ cent to ¾ cent lower than last week's quotations, as to quality. A lot of 150 head Canada Cattle, from some 700 miles west of the Canadian Bridge, Canada, were sold at $8 per 100 lbs gross.
